

New Location Takes Shape

By adminlen On June 3, 2011 · Add Comment

In just a few short weeks PBPC will be meeting in a new permanent location! The Visitor Center downtown has been great, but we are ready to move into larger quarters and expand our ministries and presence in Bonners Ferry. The new location is on the corner of Madison and Washington streets, just off Highway 95 on the brink of the South Hill overlooking the valley. The property was pretty overgrown and needs a lot of TLC, but it is shaping up nicely as everyone pitches in to clean, dig, build, paint, weed, and spruce up. We're praying and hoping to hold our first services in the location on June 26. Please join us!

