PBPC and The Machen Institute will be offering a new class beginning Wednesday, October 7, at 2:00 P.M. The class is entitled "What is the Gospel?" and is begin taught by Rev. Michael Kohl, who attends Providence with his family. This class will take the place of the usual Wednesday evening Bible study and prayer meeting through the Fall.

Dr. Kohl is fervent about properly understanding the gospel, particularly in the theological climate of our day which is increasingly prone to add human works into the mix of what is required for salvation. The course is offered online as well; contact us here at the church to find out how to participate. Online space is limited at present, so let us know right away if you're interested. Of course, there's plenty of room at the church for resident students!
